MUSINGS & NOTES FROM THE ADMINISTRATOR'S DESK

On this second Sunday of Advent, in the Gospel reading, we hear about Jesus' cousin, Saint John the Baptist. From the time that John was in the womb, he recognized the Lord (see Luke 1:41). As an adult, he prepared the way for Jesus, with preaching and baptisms.

Today, let's reflect on the words of Saint John the Baptist: "[Jesus] must increase; I must decrease" (John 3:30). Advent is a graced time of making Jesus more and more the love of our hearts and the center of our lives, while humbly acknowledging that anything good in us comes from Him.

The Lord is the Divine One, and we glorify, worship, and adore Him. Like the pearl of great price, we are to seek Him with the intensity of deep love. St. Francis of Assisi prayed, "My God and My All!"

It is also important to point others to Him, just as Saint John the Baptist did, serving others with our time, gifts, and love, which pleases the Lord. Saint Teresa of Kolkata once said, "At this Christmas when Christ comes, will He find a warm heart? Mark the season of Advent by loving and serving others with God's own love and concern."

As we continue our journey this Advent, let's walk with Saint John the Baptist: decreasing, by growing in humility, and pointing toward the Lord with our words and actions, showing others His goodness and love.

May Saint John the Baptist help us prepare our own hearts for the joy of Christmas.

FAITH MATTERS:

Wreath Prayer for the Second Week

Stir up our hearts, O Lord, to prepare the ways of Thine only-begotten Son, that through His coming we may be worthy to serve Thee with purified minds. Who livest and reignest, with God the Father, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, God, world without end. Amen.

Explanation of the Prayer

In the Advent wreath prayer for the first week of Advent, we asked Christ to come to our aid; this week, we ask Him to move us to action, so that we can prepare ourselves for both His coming at Christmas and His Second Coming. He offers Himself freely, but we must freely accept His offer in order to attain salvation.
