Did you know that...if you look at a treaty map of Saskatchewan - treaties 4,5,6,8, and 10 cover all of our province. So no matter where you live in Saskatchewan, you are on treaty land and we are all treaty people - Indigenous and non-Indigenous alike.

Stewardship Bulletin Bit

"Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, 'Whom shall I send? Who will go for us?' 'Here I am,' I said, 'send me!'" (Isaiah 6:8)
Every day, in little ways and in big ways, God asks, "Whom shall I send?" Whether it is someone to take on a new ministry, to give a friendly smile to a stranger or to say a word of encouragement to a friend, God constantly provides opportunities to help someone in need. God is always talking to us; we just need to pay more attention. When you hear God calling have the courage to walk through the door and say "Here I am, Lord."

The Archdiocese of Regina is located on Treaty 4 Territory, the traditional lands of the Nêhiyawak, Nahkawé, and Nakota, and homeland of the Dakota, Lakota, and Métis peoples.

TF#282: Dr. Brett Salked and John Jalsevac - Part 2

Dr. Brett Salked and guest John Jalsevac discuss how, though they have different initial instincts with respect to vaccination, reasoned engagement with the sources makes it possible to sift fact from fiction and find common ground. "If we have these conversations, real conversations based upon an openness to the other you often realize that you have more in common than you realize, you can have a more productive conversation than you realize, and you avoid getting pulled to these extremes that just in many cases aren't true."
