DATE CHANGE: Accompaniment Workshop Series Compassionate Communication

Life has its challenges and Covid has brought to light that many people are struggling and often have no one to turn to. Have you ever tried to accompany someone and struggled to know what to say or how to act? The Archdiocese of Regina through the Victim Service Advocacy position is pleased to offer the first in a series of four workshops on accompaniment through a trauma informed approach. Please join us for this free zoom workshop on Sunday January 30, 2022 from 1:00-5:00 PM. Our topic in this workshop will be Compassionate Communication: through the lens of a professional counsellor, a spiritual director and a victim of clergy sexual abuse and other traumas. If you would like to register or are looking for more information please contact Pamela at victimserviceadvocacy@gmail.com.

EMMAUS FAMILY SUPPORT
CARE FOR CAREGIVERS

Emmaus Family Support

1 in 4 families experience chronic mental health challenges. You do not have to walk this path alone. Emmaus Family support offers peer-led support for mental health caregivers. If you care for a loved one with mental health challenges and feel you could benefit from the support and prayers of peers, contact www.emmaussupport.ca to find out how you can join a meeting. Due to pandemic-related health and safety factors, we are currently holding sessions online via Zoom making support more accessible than ever.

“Go, eat rich foods and drink sweet drinks, and allot portions to those who had nothing prepared...” (Nehemiah 8:10)
Ezra's instructions to the people show us that God does not forbid us from enjoying the good things in life. He wants us to be happy! However, God expects us to be grateful for all that He has given us and to generously share our blessings with those who are in need. Now here's the hard part – to share all we have without expecting anything in return.

TF280: Dr. Brett Salkeld and Dan Shervan: Somewhat of a Catholic - Part 2

Dr. Brett continues his conversation with local writer and newest contributor to Archregina News, Dan Shervan discussing his unique perspectives on faith, spirituality, and religion as part of his personal journey of faith.

Show Snippet: “It reminds me of Nietzsche saying ‘God is dead’, and people never know the end of that quote where it’s like ‘and we’ll never wash the blood off our hands’. As soon as you eliminate that transcendent value system, then something else has to try to replace it...”

itwewin Corner (itwewin is the Cree word which means ‘the word’ or ‘as it is said...’) Fr. John Weckend, Archdiocese of Regina Truth and Reconciliation Healing Committee

Did you know that... in 1493 Pope Alexander VI issued the first of four orders that granted most of North and South America to Spain, the kingdom that had sponsored Columbus's voyage of the preceding year. These orders helped shape the political and legal arguments that have come to be referred to as the ‘Doctrine of Discovery’ which was used to justify the colonization of the Americas in the 16th century. In return, the Spanish were expected to convert the Indigenous peoples of the Americas to Christianity.

The Archdiocese of Regina is located on Treaty 4 Territory, the traditional lands of the Nêhiyawak, Nahkawé, and Nakota, and homeland of the Dakota, Lakota, and Métis peoples.
