Accompaniment Workshop Series Compassionate Communication

Life has its challenges and Covid has brought to light that many people are struggling and often have no one to turn to. Have you ever tried to accompany someone and struggled to know what to say or how to act? The Archdiocese of Regina through the Victim Service Advocacy position is pleased to offer the first in a series of four workshops on accompaniment through a trauma informed approach. Please join us for this free zoom workshop on Sunday January 16, 2022 from 1:00-5:00 PM. Our topic in this workshop will be Compassionate Communication: through the lens of a professional counsellor, a spiritual director and a victim of clergy sexual abuse and other traumas. If you would like to register or are looking for more information please contact Pamela at victimserviceadvocacy@gmail.com.

TF278: Dr. Brett Salkeld and Brendan Steven on Universal Basic Income - Part 4

Dr. Brett Salkeld and guest, Brendan Steven begin a four-part series of discussions on the idea of a Universal Basic Income.

Show Snippet: "As much as I just said you can't have private property with universal destination of goods, and that's true, private property nonetheless is an important principle and you do have to discern when are we unjustly taking away from the producer of the goods, goods that are rightfully theirs..."

Stewardship Bulletin Bit

"John answered them all, 'I baptize you with water; but he who is mightier than I is coming...he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit...' " (Luke 3:16)

The Catholic Catechism states that "Jesus' immersion in the water is a sign for all human beings of the need to die to themselves to do God's will." In other words, as baptized Catholics there is only one gift that we need to give to Jesus – the gift of ourselves. Surrender yourself to God, place your trust in Him and allow the Holy Spirit to work through you for the greater glory of God.

Join the most ambitious, global consultation endeavor in human history! Contact your local parish, email us at synod@archregina.sk.ca, or visit <https://archregina.sk.ca/synod-2021-2023> to find out how you can participate. #synod20212023

"The synodal process necessitates that we, as the People of God, first listen with an open heart and open mind to where the Spirit is calling us and discern to whom we are needing to listen and what steps need to be taken to more fully live out our mission."

Emmaus Family Support

1 in 4 families experience chronic mental health challenges. Holidays can be tough when navigating these kinds of difficulties. Even good feelings like excitement and anticipation can trigger stress responses. You do not have to walk this path alone. If you care for a loved one with mental health challenges and feel you could benefit from the support and prayers of peers, contact www.emmaussupport.ca to join a meeting. Meetings are currently held on the fourth Thursday of each month, via Zoom.

itwewin Corner (itwewin is the Cree word which means 'the word' or 'as it is said...')

Did you know that... when the original treaties were drawn up between the Canadian government and the First Nations people of the prairies, neither party negotiated and agreed that residential schools be established. Instead, The First Nations negotiated for schools on their reserves where their languages and cultures were the main components of the curriculum along with learning the English language and math so that their children could work alongside the newcomers and their children.

The Archdiocese of Regina is located on Treaty 4 Territory, the traditional lands of the Nêhiyawak, Nahkawé, and Nakota, and homeland of the Dakota, Lakota, and Métis peoples.
