The Archdiocese of Regina Lay Formation Program Mission-Discipleship-Service-Faith

"I see how graduates from the program have become more involved in the life of the parish: be it on pastoral council or one of the committees such as liturgy or social justice, etc. I have witnessed their faith grow from before they entered to the time of their graduation and how they become more in tune with their faith. In many ways you can see how they have fallen in love with the Lord and with his Church." - Fr. Stephen Bill, Christ the King, Regina.

One weekend per month from October until June, Catholics who want to know, love and serve Christ more deeply come together at Campion College in Regina. Are you ready to fall more deeply in love with Jesus Christ and his Church?

We are currently accepting applications for our Fall intake. For more information on how to register, please contact our Program Coordinator, Deacon Eric Gurash at 306-352-1651 ext 6724 or email him at egurash@archregina.sk.ca

Stewardship Bulletin Bit

"The Advocate, the Holy Spirit whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you." (John 14:26)

The materialism of our society lures us to concentrate more on what we want than on what God wants for us. The relativism of our world tells us that we should be tolerant of all things, that there is no absolute truth. Pray to the Holy Spirit to transform our lives and to guide our thoughts, words and actions. What you put in your head, heart and mind affect your actions. Put good things in and good things will come out.

Philomena Walking Pilgrimage

All are invited to take part in the 2022 Saint Philomena Walking Pilgrimage which is scheduled to take place from August 11th to August 14th. BULLETIN BOARD

From Fear to Love:

Spiritual Grounding in Anxious Times from the Henry Nouwen Society

We live in trying times. Wars, mass shootings, climate change, political and economic polarization, hate crimes... and a pandemic that just won't go away! Add to this the stack of personal burdens that so many endure on a daily basis. Despite the unbelievable advances in almost every area of life, advances our grandparents would be hard-pressed to even imagine, life is unavoidably anxious, stressful, and unpredictable.

Something to make things better...

Admittedly, we can't do much to change the ways of the world, but we can offer an amazing new series of five practical and profound meditational videos that will help anchor and sustain you during these difficult days.

Beginning July 16, the Henri Nouwen Society is delighted to present From Fear to Love: Spiritual Grounding in Anxious Times with Rev. Marjorie J. Thompson.

Every week for five weeks, we will introduce a FREE new video on our HNS YouTube channel. Each video is designed to offer you insights and practices on how to enrich, deepen, and strengthen your spiritual life, and how to better cope with the stresses that threaten to erode your physical, mental, and spiritual wellbeing.

An invaluable and much-needed resource for these challenging times!

There will be support materials to accompany these videos available as FREE PDF downloads. To access these materials, you will need to register at Eventbrite: eventbrite.ca/e/from-fear-to-love-spiritual-grounding-in-anxious-times-tickets-344185206217

TF299: Saints and Mental Health: St. Raphael, Remedy of God

Our monthly series on the Saints and Mental health continues as Deacon Eric Gurash reflects on Archangel, St. Raphael, and his role not just as a healer of physical ailments, but as a powerful intercessor and companion in times of serious grief and emotional distress.

Show Snippet: "The story of Tobit and his family reminds us that these answered prayers often come in surprising, disguised ways. A coworker or friend, a bit of scripture or song heard at a time of great need, or, as with Raphael, a lonely traveler, a stranger...all may be secret encounters with the divine reaching out to give answer to the deep need of our hearts."

itwewin Corner (itwewin is the Cree word which means 'the word' or 'as it is said...')

Fr. John Weckend, Archdiocese of Regina Truth and Reconciliation Healing Committee.

Did you know... "The pipe is a sacred object among First Nations' people. The pipe is a means of communication with the Creator... An individual who has been gifted with a Pipe is referred to as a Pipe carrier. Respect, self-discipline, and humility are needed to be a carrier of the Pipe. If you use the Pipe, you must worship in truth; you have to answer for those things that may not be right."

Love in the Kitchen: A Recipe for Holiness
