Sunday May 9th, 2021 6th Sunday of Easter

WE LIVE IN an unpredictable world. We can never know how things will turn out or how people will react to our words. We can't be sure what tomorrow will be and because of painful experiences we have had amidst a world in flux, we can become afraid. We begin to fear losing control over our lives, to fear the criticism of others and to fear unexpected injury or loss.

How should we respond to this fear? How ought we as Christians to encounter the unknown future? Our temptation can be to maintain a sense of control. We do this in a thousand different ways: by seeking to manipulate others, by hoarding our goods for potential future need, by building barriers between ourselves and strangers or those who remind us of our vulnerability. But the truth is that we don't need to protect ourselves from the harshness of an unpredictable world.

Today God reminds us that we need not fear at all, because he is sovereign and he loves us.

God chose freely to create all that exists out of love and he sustains us in existence out of that same love.

Love is the driving force of the universe. All we need to do is entrust ourselves to providence, to this current grace. Today, Jesus gives us the simple solution to fear: "Abide in my love."

"This is my commandment: love one another as I love you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends" - John 15:12-13

Do you love Jesus? Do you consider Him your friend? Jesus says that if we love Him we would be willing to offer whatever we have to Him, not because we want praise and glory, but simply because we love Him. Does your giving seem mechanical out of obligation or do you share freely out of love?
