Ascension of The Lord

WHEN I WAS young, I was an assistant to a great manager. Bert was a terrific teacher and role model. Eventually he quit to go to a bigger company. I was in my 20s and the owners were reluctant to promote me immediately, but they did give me the job on an "acting" basis. At first I was a mix of pride and insecurity – confident in the procedure that Bert established, but secretly aware of my own shortcomings.

The feast of the Ascension of the Lord is a template for changes that leaves us behind when someone we admire leaves. Imagine how the disciples felt after sharing in Jesus' life, death and resurrection, and then, as Ephesians records, "he ascended". Not only has their teacher left them- he has disappeared from their world. Now they are truly alone.

In reality, they are not alone and will never again be alone, because Jesus left them with more than a set of procedures, more than a plan. They have, in the life they lived with him and in the inspired Scriptures they will write, a complete plan for the salvation of humankind. That is the true meaning of the Ascension – Jesus Christ left behind nothing less than the keys to the kingdom of heaven where he has ascended to receive us.
