Sunday May 23rd, 2021 Pentecost Sunday

SEVEN WEEKS AFTER that memorable resurrection Sabbath, the disciples were still very fear filled. Huddled together, hidden behind locked doors, they waited fearful and faithful. Jesus had asked them to wait until he sent the Spirit.

Imagine the scene as these newly confident disciples poured out a message that each listener heard in their own language. This is an important gift. A story is shared one way with a co-worker and another when speaking with a dear and trusted friend. There is one manner of speaking with young children and another with adults. Many parents wisely use different words to explain the same concept to each of their children. During conversations that are especially important, the presence of the Spirit will offer the words that will be best understood by the listener.

Each year, 50 days after Easter, we celebrate Pentecost. We too must wait for the renewal of the Spirit within us. Listening attentively to the quiet guidance of the Spirit, we discover a new found confidence.

We delight in an ever-deepening capacity to experience love, joy and peace. We acknowledge, with gratitude, our growing patience, kindness, gentleness and self-control. This day, may we be open to all the gifts offered to us. Blessed in word and sacrament, we begin anew.

STEWARDSHIP:

“There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone.” - 1 Corinthians 12:4-6

All of us are blessed, regardless of our own individual circumstances. God has given each of us many gifts. How we use those gifts is our gift back to God. For God’s plan to work, each must do what we are called to do. Guess what? We are not all called to do the same thing! For God’s plan to work you have to do what God is calling you to do and I have to do what God is calling me to do.
