WE ARE MOVING

THINGS YOU NEED TO KNOW

- Until we get fully settled at our temporary location, you may have trouble reaching a staff member through telephone or email.
- We will no longer be at 445 Broad St. N., as of May 31, 2022
- Our new temporary location is in place to ensure that the day-to-day operations of the diocese continue to run smoothly. This space isn't set up for drop-in visiting. You are encouraged to make contact with us through telephone or email.
- Effective May 30, 2022, please send mail to us at: PO Box 1546, Regina, SK S4P 3C4

WE THANK YOU FOR YOUR PATIENCE DURING THIS TIME!

Variety Night 2022:

Stewardship Bulletin Bit

"I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end." (Revelations 22:13)

This is a reminder of how we should live our lives 24 hours a day, 7 days a week – putting God first in all that we do. Not only when I am at Mass and parish activities, but when I am in the world, at work or at school. Living gratefully and generously is an intentional lifestyle. Every decision you make either moves you closer to God or farther away. Choose wisely!

REVERENCE FOR LIFE PRAYER:

O Mary, to you do we entrust the cause of life.
Look down O Mother
upon the vast number of babies not allowed to be born,
on the poor whose lives are made difficult,
on those who are victims of brutal violence,
on the elderly and sick killed by indifference or misguided mercy.

We ask for the grace to accept the Gospel of Life as a gift ever new,
and the courage to bear witness to it.
To the praise and glory of God,
the Creator and lover of life.
Amen!

May is Reverence for Life Month

This month take some time to pray the rosary for life, watch the Life is a Gift Webinar or pray for life through song:

The Archdiocese of Regina Lay Formation Program Forming disciples for leadership, service and evangelization

Our goal is to empower church leaders. Through a living relationship with Jesus Christ and his Church, and informed by solid teaching by a host of experts, our alumni are sent forth to "Make disciples of all nations".

+We provide solid teaching from diocesan priests, religious and lay persons who are experts in their respective fields of theology, ethics, social justice, scripture, liturgy, canon law and a host of other fields.

+We provide the skills, tools and opportunities to deepen your spiritual life, assess your God-given gifts and discern how best to offer these in service to Jesus Christ.

+We provide a working knowledge of particular areas of service including; native ministry, ministry to the sick, dying and bereaved, youth ministry, parish government, sacramental preparations and the RCIA.

+We provide the tools and the guidance to speak confidently about the church, faith and Jesus Christ in the home, the parish and the world.

We are currently accepting applications for our Fall intake. For more information on how to register, please contact our Program Coordinator, Deacon Eric Gurash at 306-352-1651 ext 6724 or email him at egurash@archregina.sk.ca

TF298: Faith Reason and a Hermeneutic of Suspicion with John Jalsevac - Part 3

In this three-part series, Dr. Brett Salked sits down with John Jalsevac to discuss their experiences of unhealthy approaches to faith and truth-seeking and work out healthier ways forward.

Show Snippet: "We talk a lot about truth, we say, "All I care about is truth, and Christ is the Truth; I believe in Christ, therefore, I have the Truth," and then we use that to close our minds to truth."

itwewin Corner (itwewin is the Cree word which means 'the word' or 'as it is said...')

Fr. John Weckend, Archdiocese of Regina Truth and Reconciliation Healing Committee.

Did you know...a summary volume of Canada's Truth and Reconciliation Commission and its six year investigation of the residential system for Indigenous youth was published in 2015. It includes the history of residential schools, the legacy of that school system, and the full text of the Commission's 94 recommendations and calls to action. It is an excellent source book.
