MUSINGS & NOTES FROM THE ADMINISTRATOR'S DESK

On this first Sunday of Advent, the Gospel reading points us to the Second Coming of Jesus. Before delving into the Incarnation — Jesus' First Coming — we look at His return.

Since we don't know which day the Lord will come, we must stay awake and aware, always striving to live our lives in a state of grace. Each of us has a choice to make, a choice with eternal consequences, a choice with or without Jesus. No one can make the decision for us.

And it's not just a one-time decision. Each day we are to renew our love and trust in Him. Are we serving Him now with our thoughts and actions? Do we seek His will, His plans and purposes, to be accomplished in us throughout the day?

This Advent, for those of us who are able, we should try to visit the Confessional. Whether it has been five weeks or fifty years, Our Lord is patiently waiting for us to go to Him, to ask His forgiveness, and to benefit from the graces He so wants to give us.

Mother Angelica once said, "The whole Advent season is about merciful love. We look upon God's Infinite Mercy and know He finds such joy in coming to us, and that He finds joy in forgiving us."

As we are now at the beginning of Advent — and the liturgical year — we have a fresh start, an opportunity to grow in the love of Our Savior. "Don't miss the opportunity!"

FAITH MATTERS: Prayer for the Advent Wreath

Lord, our God, we praise You for Your Son, Jesus Christ, for He is Emmanuel, the Hope of all people. / He is the Wisdom that teaches and guides us. / He is the Savior of us all. / O Lord, let your blessing come upon us as we light the first (purple) candle of this wreath. / May the wreath and its light be a sign of Christ's promise of salvation. / May He come quickly and not delay.
 We ask this in His holy name. Amen.

Waiting:

We light an advent candle today, a small dim light against a world that often seems forbidding and dark. But we light it because we are a people of hope, a people whose faith is marked by an expectation that we should always be ready for the coming of the Master. The joy and anticipation of this season is captured beautifully in the antiphons of hope from the monastic liturgies:

See! The ruler of the earth shall come, the Lord who will take from us the heavy burden of our exile
 The Lord will come soon, will not delay.
 The Lord will make the darkest places bright.
 We must capture that urgency today in the small flame of our candle. We light the candle because we know that the coming of Christ is tied to our building of the kingdom. Lighting the flame, feeding the hungry, comforting the sick, reconciling the divided, praying for the repentant, greeting the lonely and forgotten – doing all these works hastens His coming.
