31st Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Catechism: the unhacked truth! For whom is the Catechism intended? The Catechism is first intended for bishops, who are the primary catechists considered to be the foremost teachers of the faith and first pastors of the Church within the diocese. Through the bishops, the priests, deacons and all those given the duty to catechize are teachers of catechesis. While the Catechism is not intended to be directly read by young people or children, St. Pope John Paul II recognized the study of Catechism that provides faithful adults a better understanding of the riches of salvation. The Catechism stresses that a well-formed conscience is upright and truthful and educating the conscience is a lifelong task. Coupled with Sacred Scripture, the Catechism should guide the formation and education toward a well-developed conscience. What is the difference between opinion, knowledge and belief? Quelle est la différence entre avis, connaissance et croyance ? 3 Minute Catechism Video: VISIT (archregina.sk.ca/group/catechetical-support-parishes/) Text: the Catechism of the Catholic Church, CCC #'s 143, 144, 154, 159. Sacred Scripture: Hebrews 11.1 & 2 Cor 5.7. For more on "opinion", read CCC #'s 2285, 2286, 2468, 2469. Pope Francis' Amoris Laetitia: makes several references to the importance of the well-developed conscience.

Emmaus Family Support

1 in 4 families experience chronic mental health challenges. Holidays can be tough when navigating these kinds of difficulties. Even good feelings like excitement and anticipation can trigger stress responses. You do not have to walk this path alone. If you care for a loved one with mental health challenges and feel you could benefit from the support and prayers of peers, contact emmaussupport.ca to join a meeting.

Stewardship Bulletin Bit

"But Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, 'Behold, half of my possessions, Lord, I will give to the poor, and if I extorted anything from anyone I shall repay it four times over.'" Luke 19:8 We are all called to gratefully give back to the Lord in proportion to the gifts we have been given. This means everyone isn't called to give the same amount, but everyone is called to give equal sacrifice. Open your heart and talk to God about how you use your money. How is God calling you to be more generous with your financial resources and possessions

Archbishops Appeal

Today's first reading reminds us of the patient love of God. He created the universe, and it is like a dew drop in a field, but with great love, correction is given, and relationship is fostered. The universe is a huge place and knowing that God is as close to us as our own heart is something amazing to ponder and encounter. That encounter continues into the Gospel. Zacchaeus is the tiny tax collector who wants to catch a glimpse of Jesus, and when Jesus asks to stay at his house, it is a surprise. To be a tax collector was to be an outcast in Jewish society: it reminded them of the roman oppressors, and it happened that many tax collectors were dishonest, exploiting many people. So, when Zacchaeus pledges to make amends to the poor and any he extorted, it is clear that his faith in Christ changed his life. The Annual Appeal works to support encounters like the one between Jesus and Zacchaeus, where we realize that Christ loves us deeply, changing our lives forever. itwewin Corner (itwewin is the Cree word which means 'the word' or 'as it is said...') Fr. John Weckend, Archdiocese of Regina Truth and Reconciliation Healing Committee. Did you know... Treaty 4 benefits that First Nations believed they would receive are the physical survival of their nations, peaceful relations with the newcomers through ongoing equitable relations, respect for cultural and spiritual survival as distinct nations by the preservation of their distinctive traditions and institutions, and a transition to a new lifestyle by learning different technologies within education, economics, and health, as well as other benefits. (OTC, 2008, We are All Treaty People, p.13) Today, and throughout the years since the signing of Treaty 4, First Nations people continue to struggle for the fulfillment of these promises as understood and promised at the time of treaty.
