The Intersection Between Ecumenism and Justice

Archbishop Donald Bolen will give the 4th Annual Paul Wattson Lecture at the Chicago Theological Union Oct. 10 at 6:00 PM. This yearly lecture, sponsored by the Franciscan Friars of the Atonement and Catholic Theological Union, honours the founder of the Friars, Fr. Paul Wattson, and focuses on ecumenical and interreligious dialogue and understanding as an important part of the mission to which Fr. Paul devoted his life. Register for the livestream at ctu.edu/event/paul-wattson-lecture-with-archbishop-bolen/

How do We Talk about Climate Change? A conversation on Integral Ecology

You are invited to join in our Ecumenical Stewardship seminar for the Season of Creation. We will be exploring the concept of “integral ecology” as found in recent ecological discussions including Pope Francis’ Laudato Si’ and others. The seminar is open to all. It will be Thursday, Oct. 6 at 3:00 PM. To register: us02web.zoom.us/j/9101562000?pwd=ZUwvdOGqjwoE9e0S2aovSDIwOcwWFF7aGbw6

National Health Care Week

From October 2 to 8, 2022 we mark National Catholic Health Care Week across Canada, recognizing the important work of Catholic health care organizations in our province and across Canada. At the heart of Catholic health care is a deep respect for the intrinsic value and dignity of every human being and a commitment to serving all people, from all backgrounds and faiths—especially those impacted by trauma, stigma, poverty, and isolation. We pray for health care teams who have given much over the past years and continue to walk with all those who are ill, deeply troubled, weary and struggling. We are grateful for our Catholic health ministries as partners in the healing ministry of Jesus, fostering trust, promoting justice and respecting the dignity of every human person—body, mind and soul. Holding all those who are hurting in our hearts, we ask God to bless the work of Catholic health care and we offer our prayers, support, and encouragement for the people of our Catholic health organizations who serve with compassion and courage. You are encouraged to mark National Catholic Health Care Week with daily reflections and prayers. Please visit the Catholic Health Alliance of Canada website at chac.ca

Stewardship Bulletin Bit

“For God did not give us a spirit of cowardice but rather of power and love and self-control.” 2 Timothy 1:7

Many of us compartmentalize our Faith, we bring it out only when we attend Mass or when we attend a parish event. Being a good steward requires discipline and striving to put God first in everything - all the time. The next time you are at a neighborhood party or at work or out shopping, would your words and actions signal to others that you are a good and faithful servant of our Lord?

The Archdiocese of Regina is located on Treaty 4 Territory, the traditional lands of the Nêhiyawak, Nahkawé, and Nakota, and homeland of the Dakota, Lakota, and Métis peoples.

TF316: A Deacon's First Wedding - Part 2

Deacon Eric continues the discussion about what it was like to preside at the marriage of his daughter over the summer and how the vocation of marriage impacts not just married couples, but the world.

Show Snippet: "That's one of the reasons I chose to speak not just to my daughter and my new son-in-law about this vocational calling, this missionary nature of marriage, but I specifically addressed all couples that were gathered there to remember that there's a mission, there's a purpose for you being together..."

The Archdiocese of Regina Lay Formation Program Share the Joy of the Gospel!

"I'm more conscious that God is around me all the time. To know that He is everywhere with every person has helped me to step out of my comfort zone. Everyone has their little quirks and I see those as gifts or their own personal freedom of being who they are." - Beckey Franke, St. John the Baptist Parish, Estevan

One weekend a month from October to June, Catholics just like you are gathering at Campion College in Regina as they become more deeply aware of God's personal love and activity in their lives. Why not make their story, your story? We are currently accepting applications for our Fall intake. For more information on how to register please contact our Program Coordinator, Deacon Eric Gurash at 306-352-1651 ext 6734 or email him at egurash@archregina.sk.ca

Creation Care in our Places of Prayer: Energy Retrofits and other Faith-based climate action

Kairos Regina is hosting a gathering to help you and your church community learn, share, and begin to plan a path forward to decarbonize your church. We will tackle the questions of why does this question matter from a theological Christian perspective, what are others already doing about this, and what practical resources are out there to help us get started. We hope you will join us!

Saturday, Oct. 15, 9:30 AM–4:00 PM lunch included

Living Spirit Centre, 3018 Doan Dr., Regina

itwewin Corner (itwewin is the Cree word which means 'the word' or 'as it is said...')

Fr. John Weckend, Archdiocese of Regina Truth and Reconciliation Healing Committee.

Did you know... The Treaty 4 territory encompasses a vast portion of southern Saskatchewan and a western segment of Manitoba with 36 First Nations representing over 60,000 members in their jurisdiction. Treaty 4 includes major cities such as Regina, Moose Jaw, Swift Current, Weyburn, and Yorkton. Treaty 4 is one of five treaties negotiated between the Crown and First Nations in what is now the province of Saskatchewan. Treaty 2 was not negotiated in Saskatchewan but covers a small portion of land in the southeast corner of the province.

CHAS 79th Annual Convention

On October 27th - 28th, 2022 the Catholic Health Association of Saskatchewan will hold its 79th Annual Convention at Queen's House of Retreats in Saskatoon! Hospitality is such an important part of caring that leads to healing. This year's convention theme is Hospitality: The Link that Builds Community. We are very pleased to announce that Fr. Ron Rolheiser will be a keynote speaker. The convention will cover topics such as palliative care, addiction recovery, and care for people with dementia and it will feature panelists who will help us appreciate the steps we need to take toward reconciliation with our Indigenous and Metis sisters and brothers. Register at queenshouse.org

Trinity Manor at Westerra: Welcome Home!

Experience the true meaning of retirement with a world of choices, beautiful architecture, and a variety of programs and services. Your neighbours are caring people who make you feel welcome. One of our residents said, "If I was still living in my home, I would be so isolated now. But, living at Trinity Manor I have friends all around me". Regina's own Trinity Manor, a part of Emmanuel Care, is under the leadership and sponsorship of the Catholic Bishops of Saskatchewan. Whether you need assisted living, short stay, customized care plans, or to age in place, we are challenging the standard for retirement living. With our affordable pricing starting at $2245, enjoy premium retirement living at affordable rates! Attend daily mass, receive the sacraments, or spend time in quiet reflection in our tranquil chapel. Start your day by enjoying the country sunrise, 10 mins from downtown.
