MUSINGS & NOTES FROM THE ADMINISTRATOR'S DESK

November begins with the Solemnity of All Saints, followed by All Souls' Day, both of which testify mightily to the mercy of God at work in every person. Allow me to quote from these reflections in Magnificat, November 2022 issue. "Visiting a botanical nursery garden, one is amazed by the variety of plants and flowers, and often one is drawn to think of the imagination of the Creator who has given the earth a wonderful garden. A similar feeling of wonder strikes us when we consider the spectacle of sainthood: the world appears to us as a garden where the Spirit of God has given life with admirable, imagination to a multitude of men and women saints, of every age and social condition, of every language people, + culture. Everyone is different from the other, each unique in his or her own personality and spiritual charism. All of them, however, were impressed with the seal of Jesus (Rv 7:3), or the imprint of his love witnessed through the cross. They are all in joy in a festival without end. But, like Jesus, they achieved this goal passing through difficulties and trials, each of them shouldering their own share of sacrifice in order to participate in the glory of the Resurrection. The solemnity of All Saints came to be affirmed in the course of the first Christian millennium as a collective celebration of martyrs.... We can understand this martyrdom in a broad sense: as love for Christ with out reserve, love that expresses itself in the total gift of self to God and to the brethren. This spiritual destination toward which all the baptized strive is reached by following the way of the Gospel beatitudes. It is the same path Jesus indicated that men and women saints have striven to follow, while aware of their human limitations. In their earthly lives they were poor in spirit, suffering for sins, meek, hungry and thirsting for justice, merciful, pure of heart, peacemakers, persecuted for the sake of justice. And God let them partake in his very own happiness: they tasted it already in this world, and in the next they enjoy it in its fullness. They are now consoled, inheritors of the earth, satisfied, forgiven, seeing God, whose children they are. In a word: the reign of God is theirs. On this day we feel enkindled in our hearts the desire to unite ourselves forever to the family of saints in which already we have the grace to partake. As a famous spiritual song says: "Oh when the saints/ go marching in/ oh how I want to be in that number!" May this beautiful aspiration burn within all Christians and help them overcome every difficulty, every fear, every tribulation! Let us place our hand in Mary's maternal hand. May the Queen of All Saints lead us toward our heavenly homeland in the company of the blessed. ~ Pope Benedict XVI

FAITH MATTERS: Praying for the Faithful Departed O God of the spirits of all flesh, O Jesus, Lover of souls we recommend unto you the souls of all those your servants who have departed with the sign of faith and sleep the sleep of peace. We beseech you, O Lord and Savior, that as in your mercy to them you became man so now you would hasten the time and admit them to your presence above. Remember, O Lord, that they are your creatures, not made by strange gods but by you, the only living and true God; for there is no other God but you and none can equal your works. Let their souls rejoice in your light, and impute not to them their former iniquities, which they committed through the violence of passion, or the corrupt habits of their fallen nature. For, although they have sinned, yet they always firmly believed in the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. And before they died, they reconciled themselves to you by true contrition and the sacraments of your Church O Gracious Lord, we beseech you, remember not against them the sins of their youth and their ignorance but according to your great mercy be mindful of them in your heavenly glory. May the heavens be opened to them and the angels rejoice with them. May the archangel Saint Michael conduct them to you. May your holy angels come forth to meet them and carry them to the city of the heavenly Jerusalem. May Saint Peter to whom you gave the keys of the kingdom of heaven, receive them. May Saint Paul, the vessel of election stand by them. May Saint John, the beloved disciple who had the revelation of the secrets of heaven, intercede for them. May all the holy apostles, who received from you the power of binding and loosing, pray for them. May all the saints and elect of God, who in this world suffered torments for your name, befriend them that being freed from the prison beneath they may be admitted into the glories of that kingdom, where with the Father and the Holy Spirit you live and reign one God, world without end. Come to their assistance, all you saints of God; gain for them deliverance from their place of punishment, meet them, all you angels; receive these holy souls and present them before the Lord. Eternal rest give to them, O Lord, and may perpetual light shine on them. ~ Saint John Henry Newman. MAGNIFICAT, November 2022 issue.
