Youth Ministry; What Now!?

Anyone who cares about young people is invited to join the diocesan Office of Youth and Young Adult Ministry Offices for the workshop "Youth Ministry: What Now!?" Has the pandemic forever changed the way we minister to young people? The answer is Yes.... and it's actually an exciting thing! We want to hear about your challenges and concerns and dreams! And then we will have some thoughts for some steps forward that ANYONE can be a part of!

No registration needed. Just hop on Zoom and join us on Sept. 22nd at 7:00 p.m. <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/89816000751?pwd=L2lqd2JLRTJmSUFodWxmVG5WbVRNdz09>

TF262: Catholic Discernment and the 2021 Federal Election with Brendan Steven - Part 2

In this part two of two, returning guest Brendan Steven of www.CatholicConscience.org joins Eric and Brett to discuss the role of Catholic voters and the need for deep discernment in the upcoming Canadian federal election.

Show Snippet: "I want more Catholics to learn more about Catholic Social Teaching, and...how blown away you will be about the consequences of Christ's love for all his people, and the way that manifests in how the Church teaches how we live in community with one another."

Season of Creation September 1 - October 4, 2021

Season of Creation Sky Sunday. Father God, help us to realize that we live under one sky, breath one air, walk the same path of life on this one earth. This fragile planet, our tent, our home is your gift to us. Help us to treat it with respect, with love as we move toward a Laudato Si' way of living. We offer today a small selfless act. May it ripple and generate an attitude of gentleness toward each other and our fragile home. (Linda Maddaford)

Archdiocesan Social Justice Commission

The Archdiocesan Social Justice Commission would like to invite you to participate in the first steps of a discernment process steeped in scripture, prayer, and the Church's rich social teachings. We recognize that parishioners across the Archdiocese have strongly held desires and intentions for responding to the Spirit's call. We want to listen to your hopes and dreams as we begin a process of engagement, consultation, and careful discernment with you. This process aims to give you a small taste of what we have to offer you in the way or support and resources to help you achieve the Spirit's hopes for your parish/community and to share ideas and network with others. We hope to see you there. Tuesday, September 21st, 7:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m. Click here to Register: <https://www.eventbrite.ca/e/arch-congress-social-justice-workshop-tickets-170064227683>

The Archdiocese of Regina Lay Formation Program - Mission-Discipleship-Service-Faith

"I see how graduates from the program have become more involved in the life of the parish: be it on pastoral council or one of the committees such as liturgy or social justice, etc. I have witnessed their faith grow from before they entered to the time of their graduation and how they become more in tune with their faith. In many ways you can see how they have fallen in love with the Lord and with his Church." - Fr. Stephen Bill, Christ the King, Regina.

One weekend per month from October until June, Catholics who want to know, love and serve Christ more deeply come together at Campion College in Regina. Are you ready to fall more deeply in love with Jesus Christ and his Church? We are currently accepting applications for our Fall intake. For more information on how to register or our COVID-19 health and safety protocols, please contact our Program Coordinator, Deacon Eric Gurash at 306.352.1651 ext 211 or email him at egurash@archregina.sk.ca

Stewardship Bulletin Bit

"If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all." Mark 9:35

Jesus teaches us that we are called to love one another. Love involves sacrifice. Sacrifice is a word that many of us don't like to hear. We think it means that we must give up something that we want. However, the literal meaning of sacrifice is "to make holy," from the words "sacer" = sacred and "facere" = to make. In other words, we make our lives holy by sharing our gifts in the service of God.

Baptists and Catholics Together?

Webinar, September 22 at 11:00 a.m.CST

Register for free at https://us06web.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_V8WGBYQT5-c1gCC6M8Zlg

Within the whole church, Baptists and Catholics might seem to be ecclesiological and liturgical polar opposites. The two traditions are arguably more dissimilar from one another than each is from almost any other Christian tradition.

Yet, as veteran Baptist ecumenist Steven Harmon demonstrates in his forthcoming book Baptists, Catholics, and the Whole Church: Partners in the Pilgrimage to Unity, they share much in common that can enable them to travel together as fellow pilgrims on the journey toward a more visibly united church. Join Steven and leading Catholic ecumenist Paul Murray as they discuss Catholic-Baptist relations and how the Baptist-Catholic encounter can benefit the whole Christian community.

Visitation House Supported Through Queen City Marathon 2021

Fr. John Weckend ran in the first marathon in 2001 and since then has raised over $160,000 in support of Visitation House, an outreach centre for women in downtown Regina, under the auspices of the Archdiocese of Regina. Although Fr. John took a break from running a few years ago, he still organized a team to continue this wonderful work. This year, he has returned to run with the Holey Soles Team. Watch Fr. John's message about this year's run. To find out more about Visitation House, watch this video from the Director, Theresa Hilbig. Ways you can donate now:

- Cash or cheques (payable to Visitation House) accepted after weekend Masses by CWL members or drop off at a Regina Catholic Church during office hours.
- Interac e-Transfer through Archdiocese of Regina, using email address visitationhouse@archregina.sk.ca
- Mail cheques to Visitation House, 900 - 11th Avenue, Regina S4N 0K7

The 300 – A Catholic Men's Event - On September 24-25, at Holy Family Parish, we are planning to welcome Bear Woznick, Host of EWTN's "The Bear Woznick Adventure" Radio Show, the syndicated "Long Ride Home" TV Series, and the author of the books: "Deep in the Wave: A Surfing Guide to the Soul" & "Deep Adventure: The Way to Heroic Virtue." Praying for Priests Apostolate for the Archdiocese of Regina First Stage – Spiritual Motherhood for Priests

The idea of spiritual adoption of priests, where a woman adopts a certain priest as her spiritual "son" for whom she promises to pray, is not a new one; however, it was reserved only for nuns. In 2007, the Congregation of the Clergy, with the approval of Pope Benedict XVI, invited lay women to adopt priests as their spiritual sons, and to pray for them constantly, particularly before the Blessed Sacrament. In this Spiritual Motherhood of Priests, we try to imitate our Blessed Mother Mary, the first Mother of Priests, in her humility and sacrifice. We adopt priests as our sons with the commitments of Eucharistic Adoration, daily prayers, and sacrifices to help our priest-sons give themselves to God more perfectly in being shepherds of their flocks, leading us all to heaven with them. Would you like to become a Spiritual Mother and "adopt" a priest to pray for him? For more information please contact: Shannon Novak at tnovak@sasktel.net or 306-585-1609.

LIFE CHAIN - Please join us as we prayerfully witness to the dignity and importance of all life on Sunday, October 3, 2:00 to 3:00 p.m. This year, we will be meeting on the West side of Albert St in the green space by the Large Grasshopper just off Leopold Cr. We will maintain protocols (if any), grab signs and distance out along Albert St for our hour of prayerful witness to LIFE. Please bring your own hand sanitizer and masks, if you wish to wear them. Due to restrictions, we are unable to offer food or drinks. Please park on the West side of Albert Street on or around Leopold Crescent and not in the Museum parking lot.

Wicihitowin Indigenous Engagement Conference

October 5 to 7, 2021- Virtual, online conference

The 7th Wicihitowin Indigenous Engagement Conference invites community organizations, governments and businesses to learn about inclusive representation of Indigenous people as employees, volunteers and decision-makers. Within the context of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission's Calls to Action, if you're working towards respectful Indigenous engagement and inclusion in a community-based setting, this conference is for you. Join us on the path to reconciliation. This year's free online conference will explore the Seven Sacred Teachings that guide Indigenous People's ways of knowing. Together, we can learn how these teachings can inform, heal, and support communities, organizations, governments, and businesses on their paths to reconciliation.
