MUSINGS & NOTES FROM THE ADMINISTRATOR'S DESK

This week the Church celebrates the feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross on September 14, and the memorial of Our Lady of Sorrows follows on September 15. The pairing of these celebrations, even in their different levels on the liturgical and sanctoral calendars, properly guides us in our levels of devotion and love of our Savior and Our Lady. He is our Divine Redeemer, to be worshiped and adored; she is His first disciple and our example. Both of these celebrations have a long history and are worthy of meditation.

The feast of the Triumph of the Cross was observed in Rome in the late seventh century to commemorate the recovery of the Holy Cross by Byzantine Emperor Heraclius in 629. But on a deeper level, of course, the feast recalls Jesus' triumph over death and the fulfillment of His great statement, "When I am lifted up from the earth, I will draw everyone to myself" (Jn 12:32). Like the commemoration of Good Friday during Holy Week, the feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross reminds us of the wondrous contradiction at the heart of our faith: that we are redeemed by the suffering and the sacrifice of Jesus Christ, offered to God the Father.

September 15 then recalls the sorrow of Our Lady at the foot of the Cross as the fulfillment of Simeon's prophecy at the Presentation of Jesus in the Temple: "(and you yourself a sword shall pierce) so that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed" (Lk 2:35). According to Lumen Gentium #58, "the Blessed Virgin advanced in her pilgrimage of faith, and faithfully persevered in her union with her Son unto the cross, where she stood, in keeping with the divine plan, grieving exceedingly with her only begotten Son, uniting herself with a maternal heart with His sacrifice, and lovingly consenting to the immolation of this Victim which she herself had brought forth." Devotion to Our Lady of Sorrows became very popular in the monastic Cistercian and mendicant Servite orders in the 13th century. First celebrated by the Servites, Pope Pius VII added it to the Roman Calendar in 1814, then Pope St. Pius X moved the memorial to September 15th in 1913.

FAITH MATTERS: PRAYER TO THE HOLY CROSS

O, Adorable Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, You have suffered death on the Cross for our sins.

- O, Holy Cross of Jesus, be my true light!
- O, Holy Cross, fill my soul with good thoughts.
- O, Holy Cross, ward off from me all things that are evil.
- O, Holy Cross, ward off from me all dangers and deaths and give me life everlasting!
- O, Crucified Jesus of Nazareth, have mercy on me now and forever.

In honor of the Precious Blood of Jesus, his death, resurrection and ascension which leads to everlasting life; true as Jesus was born on Christmas Day; true as Jesus was crucified on Good Friday; true as Joseph and Nicodemus took Jesus down from the cross and buried Him; true as Jesus ascended into Heaven; may He preserve me from my enemies visible and invisible forever.

O, Lord Jesus Christ have mercy on me! Mary and Joseph pray for me.
 Lord Jesus Christ, through Your suffering the Cross grant me strength to bear my Cross without fear or dread and give me the grace that I may follow You. Amen.
