Sunday February 23rd, 2020 7th Sunday in Ordinary Time

HOW FAR SHOULD Christian disciple's love extend? Are there not times when we might appropriately retaliate in response to a slight or attack?

The recollection of who God is, and who we are because we belong to God – the theme of all of this Sunday's reading – provides a challenging response.

Christian love is meant to be limitless, extending beyond the local communities and comfort zones of disciples, and embracing even enemies and evildoers. We are not to obliterate our opponents, nor to exact revenge, even if taking only an eye for an eye, a tooth for tooth. The extent of a disciple's obligation exceeds treating others the way we would like to be treated. A disciples' love gives priority to the other's welfare first.

Disciples aim to emulate God's love which is selfless, forgiving and unconditional. Such a love has called all creation into being, is ongoing, redemptive and life-giving. Such a love seeks the salvation of all. We can recognize all of this in the gifts of Jesus Christ, who announced the reign of God and freely gave himself up to death on a cross, and the indwelling presence of the Holy Spirit in the Church's midst. Crowned with such steadfast love and mercy, we strive to imitate the perfection –wholeness, holiness- of God with unreserved service of God and neighbour.

STEWARDSHIP:

"But I say to you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you..." (Matthew 5:44)
 Love your enemies, easier said than done, no doubt. But, remember, the foundation of stewardship is prayer. When we are in close communication with God, it opens our heart and it turns our attention away from "me" and moves it towards God and others. It allows us to have a little more empathy for "our enemy." When we pray for others, even "our enemies," maybe it softens their hearts as well.
