Sunday February 9th, 2020 5th Sunday in Ordinary Time

JESUS IS CALLING us, his disciples, to stand up and be counted, to be like salt. Hold on, I wonder, why salt? I ask The Bride, my better half of 35 years, to remind me of the purpose of salt. Jennifer gives me one of those "you're kidding" looks, and explains that salt acts as a preservative, but also enhances textures and, most importantly, the flavour of the food.

Then our Lord calls us to be light in the world, to "shine before human beings." Okay, now I think I know where Jesus is going. As Christians we are called to live intentionally and differently. Our faith calls us to be in the pew on Sunday, and also much more.

Being salt and light doesn't sound difficult, but nor is it easy. It means we, who love God and follow Jesus, must make space in our busy lives for daily prayer and quiet reflection. It is here that we listen and invite the Holy Spirit to speak to our mind and heart. Then, when we feel the nudge to say hello to the stranger, help our elderly neighbour, visit the sick and give generously to the less fortunate, we are mindful that our good deeds are because of God's love for us and through us. We give all credit and praise to our Father in heaven.

STEWARDSHIP:

"Let your light shine before others, that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven." (Matthew 5:16)

The generosity of being a good steward of your gifts has a positive effect on people, and it is contagious! Good works encourage more good works. Let your light shine! Be careful to recognize that God is working through you and don't put yourself above the people you have been called to help.

Thinking Faith #176 & #177 Catholics, Social Media, and Polarization - Part 1 and Part 2

It seems that most any topic leads quickly to polarized positions, angst and a confluence of conspiracy theories. In this part one of two, Deacon Eric and Dr. Brett wade into these murky waters and examine the roles human nature and social media might play and offer some discernment tools to help this week on...

In this part two of two, deacon Eric and Dr. Brett Salkeld continue the discussion on social media and polarization from a Catholic perspective. They'll discuss the ways polarization can cloud perceptions regardless of which side we might fall on, and share some additional tools for navigating today's complex media waters. Checking our bias and our sources this week on Thinking Faith! <http://thinkingfaith.libsyn.com/tf177-catholics-social-media-and-polarization>
