Sunday March 15th, 2020 3rd Sunday of Lent

I ONCE DID a day hike in a desert like landscape on a hot day in July. By noon, I had no water left in my water bottle. I began to experience an increasingly painful thirst. My throat was parched. My whole body was crying for water while the desert sun kept beating down on me.

The desert can be an image for a period of suffering that we experience in our lives. We can feel so drained, so tired of pain, so distressed. We thirst for some relief, for a better time.

We languish.

The Samaritan woman was thirsty. Not just for water but mainly for a better life.

She meets Jesus who offers her hope. In fact, he makes a promise to her: "The one who drinks of the water that I will give will never be thirsty." This sounds too good to be true. But Jesus insists by saying that he is offering her life in all its fullness. She believes in him and her life is transformed.

Jesus invites us today to follow him more closely. As the psalm says, "O that today you would listen to the voice of the Lord."

By listening to his infinitely merciful and caring voice, we can bring to him the parched and hurting parts of our lives and be transformed.

STEWARDSHIP:

"Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again." (John 4:13)

Jesus reminds us that material things, even something as basic as water, can never satisfy us for long. When we build our lives around material possessions, we always want more. True Joy and Peace only comes when we follow Jesus; when we become more "God-centered" and less "self-centered."

Church Polarization and the Amazon: Querida Amazonia- Part 1

Discussing the furor surrounding what did not make it into Querida Amazonia and setting things up for a multi-part examination of what Pope Francis actually has to say about the Church and the needs of the Amazon and the world.

Snippet from the show:

"Here's a test question for you...if you were surprised by the document, if you were shocked by what it didn't say, you need to check your media consumption."
